3. NSA Briefings

The "third" high level briefing for senior NSA personnel took place on 14 July at Fort Meade. According to [REDACTED]

25X1A

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

25X1A [REDACTED] senior NSA official,

stated that these briefings are the best thing that have happened to NSA-CIA relations for a long time. [REDACTED]

25X1A

25X1A and [REDACTED] briefed NSA personnel on their areas of responsibilities on 21 July 1965.

4. Foreign Service Briefings.

25X1A [REDACTED] briefed some seventy Foreign Service Reserve Officers and clericals on the national security structure, intelligence community, and the Agency, with emphasis on the importance of 25X1C [REDACTED] an NSA management official, sat in on the briefings and after the meeting, informally discussed with [REDACTED] the possibility of having an Agency official assist him in briefings for NSA personnel bound for overseas.

25X1A 5. OCR Reorganization on Regional Basis

25X1A [REDACTED] Chief, Asia Branch, Foreign Documents Division, recently met with Dr. Gehrke of the Intelligence School to discuss training requirements in connection with OCR's plan to reorganize and automate their activity on a regional basis. A China unit will be set up this fall, and if it proves successful, the remainder of OCR will be reorganized along the same lines. It was suggested
